THE GREAT MAY FIESTA

"STORY OF THE GOLDEN WEST" TO SURPASS ALL PREVIOUS AFFAIRS

With entries pouring in from every section of the Southland indications are that the great May fiesta in Los Angeles will far surpass all the glories of past pageants. "The Story of the Golden West" will be unfolded in majestic splendor Saturday morning, May 1, with a parade miles long depicting the history of California from the first white man's arrival to the present.

In the afternoon the greatest rodeo ever brought together will open for nine days at the Stadium, Thirty-eighth and Hooper Ave. Night will bring a brilliantly beautiful electrical pageant telling the story of California's gorgeous flowers.

Monday, May 3, will be held a real feast of blossoms. There are fifteen classes in this parade of flowers. There is no entry fee and cash prizes from $5 to $200 are offered. The entries must be made by noon on Friday, April 23.

Artificial flowers are barred, as are bicycles and motorcycles. Trade advertisements also will be prohibited.

It is believed that the outlying districts will capture the majority of the floral prizes owing to the wealth of flowers that are available at this time of year in the suburban communities.

Following is the list of prizes as announced by A. J. Bertonneau, chairman of the floral parade committee, 812 Trust and Savings building, Los Angeles:

Class A—Floral, municipalities, civic bodies and kindred organizations. First prize, $200; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $100; fifth, $75; sixth, $75; seventh, $75; eighth, $75; ninth, $75; tenth, $75.

PINK AND WHITE PARTY

There was a merry social gathering at the home of Miss Joyce Dornay, 1111 West Seventh St., last night when Miss Dornay and Miss Helen Swenson entertained a large number of the younger social circle.

The rooms were beautiful with their decorations of Cherokee roses and lover's knots fashioned from pink and white crepe paper.

The hostesses had provided abundant amusement for their guests so that merriment and joy were at their height throughout the evening.

In a guessing game Miss Ernestine Lyons won first prize while Miss Esther Schremp was awarded the consolation.

In the refreshments of ice cream and cake the pink and white color scheme was noted.

The guests at this happy gathering were Misses Ernestine Lyons, Cecilia Lyons, Catherine Phillips, Marjorie Imler, Mildred White, Hazel Flower, Virginia Olmstead, Pauline Edwards, Louise Ferris, Christine Ferris, Mona Butler, Muriel Turner, Esther Schremp, Evangeline Hunchberger, Edna Henning, Juanita Emery, Mildred Swenson; Messrs. CHAMBER DISCUSSES MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE

PURCHASE OF CEMENT PLANT BY COUNTY DISCUSSED—COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED TO CONFER WITH P. E. OFFICIALS IN REGARD TO BUILDING COMFORT STATIONS—MEMBERS EXTEND HAND OF WELCOME TO CASA VERDUGO

The regular monthly meeting of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce was held in the recorder's office in the fire station, 915 West Broadway, Friday evening, April 9, 1915.

J. W. Usilton, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided and J. F. Lilly, secretary, performed the duties of that office. After the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting the chairman in a very brief and clearly defined address outlined the work that in his opinion the members of the chamber should take up. The address is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Chamber of Commerce:

According to your instructions a committee of five has been appointed to locate and recommend to the city trustees a suitable industrial district. To prevent the committee being impeded by requests or hampered in any manner the names of the committee will not be divulged until their work is completed. In future you are requested when making a motion to appoint a committee that it be designated whether they shall have power to proceed to a conclusion or report back to this chamber.

Mr. Fred Baker, chairman, and Mr. Albert Pearce, secretary, until a regular organization is effected, of a Welfare Committee. Mr. Baker will formulate his own plans and make them public. It is the intention to make this a large committee that will work in conjunction with the chamber of commerce. Benefit should accrue to both the chamber of commerce and the city from this body.

Mr. Lilly, our secretary, who is working without compensation, is preparing material for a booklet which he will submit to your publicity committee as soon as completed. This chamber is badly handicapped in their efforts to prosecute the necessary work through lack of funds. A special effort should be made to get the old members interested in the work and also to procure new members. Suggestions along this line will be welcomed. An office, or at least desk room should be obtained, and a chamber of commerce sign placed in front of it to enable persons to locate us.

A committee should be appointed to see that the band has a pavilion for summer concerts. It is understood that ground may be obtained near the fire house and could be leased for a nominal sum for this purpose. Two comfort stations should be erected at the rear of the stand. The cost would be slight and the city trustees might find available funds for this purpose. A similar proposition was made a few years ago by Mr. Peter L. Ferry, but like the park question each section thought they were entitled to it, so it fell through. The moral is to allow your committee to handle the matter and back up what they do.

Whether it is advisable for Glendale to be represented by a float in the Los Angeles May fiesta should be discussed.

In conclusion a word for Glendale newspapers. In long experience in the newspaper business I have never seen better boosters for a city than the Glendale News and the Glendale Press. A full account of your meetings in detail and advance notices as well and there is no bill for it and I think a vote of thanks is due the proprietors for their kindness.

The chair stated that a welfare committee had been appointed, Frederick Baker being the chairman of said committee. It is the purpose of this committee to inquire into all questions that are of interest to the citizens of the Glendale community. The names of the other members of this committee are withheld for the present, thinking that they will be able to do better work if the public does not know who they are.

The question of the county's purchasing a three-fourths interest in the Los Angeles cement plant came up for consideration. J. F. Lilly, S. C. Packer and George T. Paine were present at a recent meeting of the board of supervisors and heard both sides of the question presented. These gentlemen said that those favoring the purchase of the cement plant claim that such an act will tend to keep down the price of cement, while those opposing its purchase claim that the county is not in need of a plant of this character and it will only be a burden of taxation placed upon the tax payers of the county. It is the opinion of Messrs. Lilly and Packer that the purchase of the cement plant would be a good proposition for the county. O. A.

Lane said he had been giving the subject of the purchase of the plant considerable thought and he also thinks it would be a good investment for the county. John Barrows thinks it is a mistake for the county to go into the cement business. He thinks such an act is bordering too much on Socialism. He believes it is all right for the individual firms to have the privilege of manufacturing cement without having to compete with the county which may put the cement on sale at even a lower price than it costs them to produce it. There was a difference of opinion among the members as to whether the chamber should be put on record as favoring or opposing the purchase of the plant by the county, so it was finally decided that the question be laid over until the next meeting. The members expressing their views pro and con on this subject were J. F. Lilly, S. C. Packer, O. A. Lane, F. L. Muhleman, A. T. Cowan, John R. Barrows, J. W. Usilton.

The question of providing a suitable place for a band stand and also for the installing of comfort stations was discussed at length. City Manager T. W. Watson said he would like to hear from the Chamber of Commerce on these questions. W. E. Evans suggested that a committee be appointed to confer with the Pacific Electric officials with a view of arranging for comfort stations in connection with the depot at the corner of Brand and Broadway. The suggestion made by Mr. Evans seemed to meet with the approval of the members present and a motion prevailed that a committee should be appointed to take the matter up with the Pacific Electric company asking that comfort stations be arranged for at the depot as above stated and also that stations be provided in the proposed new depot which is to be built at the corner of Everett and Broadway. The chair will announce the members of this committee later. Members talking up the subject were W. E. Evans, John R. Barrows, M. B. Hartmann, O. A. Lane, A. T. Cowan, T. W. Watson, John W. Usilton, H. A. Wilson, T. W. Preston.

A communication was read from the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce asking that the Glendale Chamber of Commerce communicate to the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington asking that they be given the advantage of terminal shipping rates and not to place upon them the burden of the haul as will be the result if only Los Angeles is designated as the terminal shipping point. While there was considerable discussion on this question the final conclusion of the members was that it would not be best for the Glendale Chamber to mix up in the affair.

A motion prevailed that it is the sense of the members of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce present that a hearty welcome be extended to the citizens of Casa Verdugo to become citizens of Glendale.

A communication from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce asking that the president and secretary of the Glendale Chamber meet with their Chamber to attend to matters of important business in the near future, was read. On motion Messrs. Usilton and Lilly were appointed to represent the Glendale Chamber of Commerce at this meeting.

Chairman Usilton said he had been approached by the officers of the Tuesday Afternoon club asking him to bring before the members of the Chamber of Commerce the advisability of holding a May festival in Glendale. A motion prevailed that a committee of five be appointed to cooperate with the Tuesday Afternoon club in arranging the details of this May fiesta.

The question came up for discussion as how to best increase the attendance at the Chamber of Commerce meetings. Some one suggested that another contest be conducted for new members the same as was conducted two years ago when T. W. Watson and M. P. Harrison were the leaders in the opposing sides of a contest which increased the membership to more than four hundred. It seemed to be the general opinion of those present that it is not so important to have a large membership as it is to have good working members even if the number is not large. Those present at Friday evening's meeting were well pleased with the interest taken in the meeting and it was remarked by J. C. Sherer, who has been a regular attendant at all of the meetings, "There is something for all of us to learn at these meetings," and he confessed that he had learned a great many things at last night's session.

WE FAVOR HARMONY

BEST THINGS CANNOT BE ACCOMPLISHED WHERE DISCORD REIGNS

It is the established policy of the Evening News to favor harmony in a community. The editor spent thirteen years of his life following the profession of school teaching. He learned that the best results were obtained in the school when perfect harmony existed among the patrons of the school. It has been his experience that the same is true in reference to municipalities—harmony is necessary for the existence of a good business administration. By harmony the writer does not mean that it is necessary to bar commonsense criticism. Everybody is benefitted by being justly criticized, and it is only a narrow man who will not receive well meant criticisms kindly.

TRIPLE K CLUB

Mrs. Andrew Wightman of Sixth and Central entertained the Triple K club on Thursday afternoon of this week. The flowers and table were all commemorative of Easter time, beautiful white Cherokee roses being everywhere and as a center for the table was a nest of roses upon which a large china egg was setting, the place cards had little yellow chicks painted across them, and the refreshments were of chicken sandwiches, stuffed eggs and other Easter dainties.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and visiting. The special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. A. S. Van Cleve, who has returned to Glendale to live after a year spent in Los Angeles, and Mrs. John Lyons. Club members present were Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. Goodman Phillips, Miss Eva Daniels, Mrs. Salo Desky, Mrs. G. C. Purser, Mrs. Perce Curtis, Mrs. Plummer Van Sant and the hostess.

COMPLIMENTS GUESTS

Mrs. A. W. Tower of 133 S. Jackson St. gave a very pretty pink and white luncheon on Friday complimentary to her house guests, Mrs. A. E. Hunt and her daughter, Miss Mable Hunt, of Minneapolis, Minn. Miss Hunt and Mrs. Tower were friends and roommates at the DePauw university of Indiana.

Pink Cherokee roses, which are so beautiful at this time of year, were used in decoration, and every available nook was filled with the lovely flowers. A low cut bowl of the roses centered the table and sprays of them were upon the cloth, while each gold-bordered place card had a real blossom drawn through the corner. At one o'clock the delicious four-course luncheon was served, and there the color scheme of pink and white was also carried out in so far as possible.

Besides the guests of honor and the hostess covers were laid for Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, Mrs. Fred Lang, Mrs. C. W. McFadden, Mrs. Warren Roberts and Mrs. C. R. Tower.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework and conversation and enjoying several numbers on the Victrola.

WEDDING BELLS

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," and so it happened to a certain young Hollywood man, although his heart had been fluttering painfully for some time before the opening of spring, but then of course the seasons are all alike in California.

However, when the first wildflowers spread their beauty over fields and hills and the mocking bird began to trill its love notes in the tree tops, the case became serious and the young man started out to look for a nest also. Up and down the streets of beautiful Hollywood he tramped until he found a cozy bungalow to his liking. And now all that remains is to take a little Glendale girl, Miss Marguerite Flower, to reside as mistress and queen of this home as Mrs. Charles Rittenhouse.

SUBSTANTIAL CITIZENS

The people of the Casa Verdugo territory who are voting on the question of annexation today are good substantial people, and are an honor to a community, whether they are outside or inside the corporate limits of Glendale. Those who prefer to join Glendale have a right to their opinion. And the people who do not wish to join Glendale certainly have a right to their opinion.

The day was spent on the sands and in visiting points of interest about the city, and was one which will long be remembered with pleasure by all. The guests were Mrs. F. H. Vesper and Mrs. E. R. Naudain of Glendale; Mrs. C. R. Vesper, Mrs. Guy Harn and Mrs. C. E. Cady of Los Angeles; Mrs. A. E. Vesper of Pasadena, and Mrs. L. H. Hall of Wanchee.

PICTURES ATTRACT

We notice that the pictures of the Robbinette club which are distributed around the city windows are awakening a lively interest among the younger set. The pictures are unusual in their artistic grouping and are worth more than a passing glance.

ANONYMOUS COMMUNICATIONS AMUSING

One of the amusing things that help to vary the monotony of newspaper work is the occasional anonymous communication which comes to the editorial desk.

But we receive too much enjoyment from the unsigned communications that come to our desk to compare the writers to anything so venomous or aggressive as a rattlesnake.

The anonymous letter fraternity is to be pitied rather than blamed. They are weakminded and incapable of making a success of anything they undertake, hence look with suspicion on those who are successful.

$60,000 FOR LOSS OF LIFE

Leon M. Avedisian, administrator of the estate of Mesrob Avedisian, who died last February as a result of an elevator accident in the Black building, Los Angeles, filed suit in the superior court Thursday against the Black Fireproof Building company for $60,000 damages.

If all law books and literature were destroyed and blotted from the earth and minds of humanity in an instant, the survival of the Golden Rule would be sufficient to construct a new human code in a day.

BAPTIST CHURCH

At the Sunday morning service of the First Baptist church the pastor, John Henry Troy, will deliver a message on questionable means of raising money for the work of the Lord.

Church entertainments, bazars, suppers and all the other modern means of supplying the church treasury will come in for a round of denunciation. The steady increase of the finances of the local Baptist church since the inauguration of the Scriptural method of supporting the work of the Lord is business argument enough for the practical man and the satisfaction of doing God's work in God's way adds greatly to the merit of the spiritual method. We sell no tickets, never hold up the dealers in the town and pay our bills by free will offerings. Glory be!

A beautiful baptismal service is announced for the evening service, the sermon topic being "Love and Obedience."

The Baptist Gospel team will hold forth on the corner of Brand and Broadway at 6 p. m. Brown and Curry song books will be used. Mr. J. Armstrong Cole, the live president of this new organization, expects all loyal Baptists to report for duty Sunday evening. Unless you are ashamed of your meanness don't fail to be on hand. The funeral service of the Setter family was held at the prayer service of last Wednesday when the lecture room could not hold the happy mourners, the pastor having to sit on the table.

Mr. Roy Kent, the active superintendent of the Baptist Bible school, will be pleased to welcome new scholars at the regular Sunday school session, 9:30. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Live topics.

FORTY YEARS IN THE LAND OF EDEN

At the First Congregational church at the 11 o'clock service Rev. J. K. Brown, D. D., for forty years representative of the American board in the land of Eden will give his great address. Dr. Brown is probably the best informed man today on the eastern question. He is properly called "A great Christian statesman." To miss hearing Dr. Brown is to miss a great opportunity.

Another splendid privilege is planned for the people at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. Horace Malloys, for fifteen years pastor of Plymouth Congregational church of Los Angeles, will preach. EXPOSITION TRAIN

SAN DIEGO, April 10.—Tours and excursion companies are playing a big part in increasing the attendance at the San Diego exposition. Some of these companies are operating trans-continental special trains with de luxe equipment and furnishing every comfort that a traveler would have at home. One of these magnificent trains has just arrived.

It was run from eastern cities under the auspices of the World's Fair company. This company's schedule of specials will bring one or the trains into San Diego every ten days. The company's next train into Southern California will have members of the Cleveland, Ohio, chamber of industries aboard. This train will leave the east April 15. Every convenience is provided for passengers and also a diversity of entertainment that is novel and pleasing. Two high salaried vaudeville artists are on each train to entertain during dinner. Professional dancers give an exhibition of the latest ballroom steps each night. There is a piano in the observation car and other musical instruments. En route from the east the trains stop two hours each night so that passengers may have opportunity to dance or get off and stroll along the track or visit a point of interest.

So careful has been the attention to all details that will make for the comfort of passengers that a physician and nurse is on each train, being with it from the time it leaves the east until it returns again. The list of servants and employes on the train includes maids, valets, a stenographer and a barber. A lecturer also travels with each train to explain the points of interest en route. The entire party which came on the company's first train is "doing" the exposition. Miss Hester E. Hosford, official biographer for President Wilson, is in the party.

THE EDUCATED MAN

To be educated in the truest sense of the word, says one of the professors of the University of Chicago, who is right, a man must be able to answer truthfully in the affirmative all these questions:

Has education made you public spirited?

Has it made you a brother to the weak?

Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself?

Can you look an honest man or a pure woman in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Will a lonely dog follow you in the street?

Can you be high minded and happy in the meanest druggeries of life?

Do you think washing dishes and hoeing corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing and golf?

Are you good for anything yourself?

Can you be happy alone?

Can you look out on the world and see anything but dollars and cents?

Can you look into a mud puddle by the wayside and see a clear sky?

Can you see anything in the puddle but mud?

Whoever replies "yes" to every query in the list, without doing violence to his conscience, is really educated, whether he has seen the inside of a college or not.—Boston Globe.

The forces guarding the Dardanelles do not seem to interpret the allies' dream of passing through quite as did the prophets of the other faction.

Reporting the condition of Secretary McAdoo one day as serious, only to announce it as excellent the next, is no way to create a high quality of news.

A CAUSTIC REPORT

The customer in the grocery store having ruined his clothes was hoping mad.

"Didn't you see the sign—'Fresh Paint'?" asked the grocer.

"Of course I did," snapped the customer, "but I've seen so many signs hung up here announcing something fresh that wasn't that I didn't believe it."

BASEBALL AT VERDUGO PARK

The Los Angeles County Baseball league opens tomorrow.

Manager Hughes of the local team was fortunate in getting his club a berth in the County league and assures the lovers of the national pastime some very high class ball this season.

The local grounds at Verdugo Park have been rearranged and the necessary fill made to make this one of the best grounds in the circuit.

Take a Montrose car or a "jitney" bus and go out to beautiful Verdugo park and give the boys a good crowd at their opening game tomorrow.

Most of the members of the local team have been playing winter ball and are in perfect trim to start the season off as a winner. The Harris & Frank team of Los Angeles will be the opposing team in the opener and from all reports everything points to a very interesting game. The following is the lineup of both teams:

FISHING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pigg started out early this morning with their big Marian car filled with lunch baskets, fishing tackle and boys. Their objective point was the San Gabriel river, where the sportive trout are said to lie in wait for the baited hook. To say this crowd of youngsters was a happy and enthusiastic bunch is a waste of good space, for who ever heard of a boy going fishing who was not happy all over from the soles of his shoes, if he happens to be wearing shoes, to the crown of his hat.

No doubt the lunch baskets will be much lighter on the return trip tonight, but no doubt each fisher will bring home the "limit" of fine fresh trout. The boys who are enjoying this outing are David Hicks, Hartley Ramsey, Ralph and Paul Hutchinson and Dudley and Billie Pigg.

YELLOW BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

Mrs. J. W. Usilton of 1120 West Seventh street is celebrating the anniversary of her birth today and in order to properly observe the day she entertained a few friends at a one o'clock luncheon.

Everything was in yellow and white, the dining room being a glow of gold with poppies, Marshal Neil roses and shower of gold, while the living room was brightened with the beauty and fragrance of many roses.

Mrs. H. S. Duffield, Mrs. Clinton Booth, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Mrs. S. C. Packer and Mrs. Clem Moore were seated at the perfectly appointed luncheon table with the hostess and enjoyed the dainty and appetizing luncheon.

Needless to say these ladies wished their hostess many happy returns of the day and if they didn't go so far as to express it in words they doubtless wished themselves many returns of such a happy occasion.

BENEFIT DANCE TONIGHT

The Glendale Baseball club will hold a dance at the Verdugo park tonight for the benefit of the ball club. Good music will be furnished and a good crowd is expected.

A Pennsylvania paper, in apologizing for the weather, says it is not so bad as that experienced in the trenches. Possibly this view helps some.

A WAR RELIC

A number of Santa Monica, members of the G. A. R. and auxiliary organizations, visited the Soldiers' home Friday afternoon to participate in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the surrender of General Lee's army to General Grant. With them went a rare relic of the war days in the form of General Order No. 9, issued by Gen. R. E. Lee and signed by him as general April 10, 1865. This priceless, time-worn document is the property of W. A. Bolter of this city, who served during the war as a member of the One Hundred and Forty-eighth New York volunteers. The order reads as follows:

Headquarters Army of Northern Virginia.
April 10, 1865.

(General Order No. 9.)

After four years of arduous service, marked by unsurpassed courage and fortitude, the Army of Northern Virginia has been compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources. I need not tell the brave survivors of so many hard-fought battles who have remained steadfast to the last that I have consented to the result from no distrust of them, but feeling that valor and devotion could accomplish nothing that would compensate for the loss that must have attended the continuance of the contest, I determined to avoid the useless sacrifice of those whose past services have endeared them to their countrymen.

By the terms of the agreement officers and men may return to their homes and remain until exchanged. You will take with you the satisfaction that proceeds from the consciousness of duty faithfully performed, and I earnestly pray that a merciful God will extend to you his blessing and protection with an increasing admiration of your countrymen and devotion to your country, and a grateful remembrance of your kind and generous consideration for myself, I bid you an affectionate farewell.

R. E. Lee, Gen'l.

EXTEND A WELCOME

At the Chamber of Commerce meeting last evening a motion carried, without a dissenting vote, approving of the proposed annexation of the Casa Verdugo territory to Glendale.

NEW YORK GUESTS

Mrs. Howard Oswald of 1439 Oak street entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keteltan and son of New York City, who are en route to San Francisco to visit the exposition. A bowl of jonquils and tulips centered the table and a delicious course dinner was served, covers being laid for Mr. and Mrs. Keteltan and son, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McKeever, Miss Elizabeth Dearborn, Mr. H. C. Gage, Mrs. Gage, mother of Mrs. Oswald, and the hostess.

WHAT IS DISSIPATION?

I think sometimes that our common definition of dissipation is far too narrow. We confine it to crude excesses in the use of intoxicating liquor or the crude gratification of the passions, but often these are only the outward symbols of a more subtle inward disorder. The things of the world—a thousand clamoring interests, desires, possessions—have got the better of us. Men become drunken with the inordinate desire for owning things and dissolute with ambition for political office. I know a man once a farmer, who debauched himself upon land; fed his appetite upon the happiness of his home, cheated his children of education, and himself went shabby, bookless, joyless, comfortless, that he might buy more land. I call that dissipation too.—David Grayson in American Magazine.

A MISSIONARY'S EXPERIENCE IN PERSIA

To flee on horseback with his wife and four-weeks-old baby before an infuriated mob of Kurds is the experience which came to Elder Frank F. Oster, a Seventh-day Adventist missionary in Persia, as given by him in a communication just received by friends here. He was obliged to flee from Maragha, leaving everything behind. The Kurds plundered the town the day after he left. He reports many Christians and Moslems killed by Kurds at Miandoab and Urumiah, Seventh-day Adventists having a company at the latter place.

Elder Oster has many friends on the Pacific coast, having lived in Portland, Oregon, and Walla Walla, Wash. His wife formerly was Miss Florence White, a daughter of Elder W. B. White, formerly president of the Pacific Union conference of the Adventists. Her home was in Oakland, Cal., for a time, and later at Walla Walla, Wash.

Writing to friends in America Mrs. Oster describes the hardships of Persian missionaries. She says:

"You see by the heading that we are in Tabriz. The dreadful Kurds came down on Maragha, and we fled, as did nearly all the Christians there. The city of Meandoab that the Kurds took before they came to Maragha was plundered and burned by them. The children were thrown into the ice-cold river and the women were treated dreadfully.

"Such news came to us, so we bought a horse and left by night with the Russian army of 800 men retreating from Meandoab. I rode the horse with our four-weeks-old baby, while Mr. Oster led him. We left everything excepting what we had on our backs and could pack in the saddle bags. Mr. Oster carried a small grip on his back.

"The first 12 hours were anxious ones. The soldiers were afraid of an attack any time; they marched in dead silence. When baby cried the officers asked me to cover her face for fear the enemy would hear. The road was terrible, for it had been snowing; then, too, we did not take the good road, but went in a round-about way over the mountains to avoid the Kurds and Turks. That first night and day I kept the saddle for 14 hours without a rest.

"I must not tell more, only that we arrived safely. I felt better than when I started, only was very tired. Winona Lucile stood the trip fine. We fell off the horse once right in a small stream. A soldier helped us a bit. He thought baby was a bundle of something we did not wish, so threw her over to one side of the road. (Some things we had taken had to be left on the road at this place, for the load was too heavy for the horse.) Mr. Oster had fixed straps on a board. We put a big pillow next to this board, then the baby on the pillow, and a smaller pillow on top; then baby and pillows were strapped tight to the board and fastened to the front of the saddle. She seemed to enjoy the ride and did not care whether her head was up or down, or how much she was jolted.

"We have been wonderfully cared for by God. The Kurds and Turks took this place also, but no murdering took place. Now the Russians have retaken Tabriz, and we feel quite safe again. Just six miles from here 800 Kurds were killed, 500 taken prisoners, and about 500 escaped. The ground was strewn with their bodies. Because of their defeat we fear they will take vengeance on Maragha, but we cannot tell. As yet the Russians are not strongly enough enforced to go down to Maragha. We do not know if they must wait until they are through fighting the Germans or not.

"This is a dreadful time throughout the world. We have seen much real suffering. Hundreds of refugees are fleeing through the snow barefooted. Many are dying from starvation. It is just too terrible. We are kindly cared for here by the Presbyterian missionaries from America. We are not yet out of danger, for the Turks are strong near the boundary and with the Kurds to help, we surely have something to fear. We are trusting in God, who is much mightier than all these armies. We are safe in his keeping."

A perilous journey Elder Oster recently made through the country of the war-like Kurds to assist the family of a minister who was drafted into the war is graphically described by him. He mentions being called upon at one place to preach to people upon a housetop by the light of the moon. He says:

"Shortly after the war broke out in Europe, the writer set out on a trip to Urumiah. Elder Stauber had been ordered to the front, leaving his family with another German family. Circumstances compelled me to go by way of Soujbulak, through the land of the terrible Kurds. I was very glad for this opportunity, for I had long wanted to visit that place and call on some acquaintances along the way. My first stop was at Miandoab (meaning between two waters) where I remained one day. I stayed with an Armenian family. In the evening I spoke to a small gathering about the signs of the times.

"Soujbulak is a town of about 20,000 people, most of whom are Kurds. There are also Turks, Armenians, Jews, Jacobites and Nestorians. Persian soldiers are stationed there as a safeguard against the Turk. While there I enjoyed the hospitality of the American Lutheran mission. In the evening I had a study on "The Eastern Question." I met one Jew who is now a Christian. I had a long visit with him, during which he asked a great many questions concerning our teaching.

BAFFLE THE SHARKS

Would that every member of the legislature had opportunity to observe the tax title sharks that day by day recently have sought to prey upon Los Angeles property owners. They would need no better object lesson in behalf of the enactment of the proposed law giving cities the right to bid in property upon which taxes or assessments have become delinquent.

The causes that contribute to such delinquencies are various. In some cases the property owner is ignorant of the fact that an assessment has been levied. In others, financial embarrassment makes it impossible for the owner to pay the tax in time. It should be the duty of government to lighten as much as possible the burdens it imposes upon its people. Taxes are an inevitable accompaniment of our present system of administration, but they should be imposed and collected with all possible consideration for the interests of the taxpayer, well says the Evening Express.

Every city has its group of parasites who find their maintenance and profit in the necessities of others. They watch the proceedings of the governing bodies and keep themselves constantly advised of assessments levied in behalf of public works. When taxes become delinquent and property is offered for sale, combinations are effected among them to the great disadvantage of property owners. These tax-title sharks get usurious interest on their money, and sometimes obtain ownership of valuable pieces of property at nominal cost. There is no reason whatever why the city should not be authorized to bid in property for delinquent assessments and thereby secure not only a profitable investment for idle funds, but protect its own citizens against spoliation.—Venice Vanguard.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, in an address before the California Teachers' association at San Francisco is said to have condemned vocational training in the schools as an attempt on the part of the "aristocracy" to hold the sons and daughters of the workers to toil and to keep them from bettering themselves. This sounds ridiculous indeed from the lips of such a noted educator as Dr. Wheeler. It seems incredible that one who has been so intimately conversant with educational matters should make such a statement. Vocational training in the grade schools and high schools has been a wonderful advantage to thousands of boys and girls, members of the "aristocracy" included. Perhaps Dr. Wheeler thinks without vocational training in the high school, more boys and girls would consider an education along professional or scientific lines and thus make a greater effort to attend college. This might be true in a few instances, but the greatest good of the greatest number should be considered and has been instrumental in establishing vocational training in the public schools. Far from trying to hold the sons and daughters of the poor to toil, the public schools of today are giving these boys and girls something tangible instead of turning them out in the world unprepared to make a living.

PUGILISM

Few men in this country did not take at least a casual and fleeting interest in the outcome of yesterday's fight for the heavyweight championship. There can be no doubt that race pride dictated the desire that the title return to the white man. Curious, too, that anybody should have cared. Pugilism as a profession is without merit. There is no intrinsic benefit in ascertaining which of two somewhat brutalized individuals is capable of whipping the other. Contests of equal importance, springing from discussion of the war, or of politics, or of any of the countless themes appealing to the citizenry are settled daily some where, unless the police interfere. Moreover, the impromptu fight is likely to be honest, while the prizefight that is not brazenly and almost openly a fake is the rare exception. There was no expectation that yesterday's event was to be "on the square," but the evidence is that each participant did the best that was in him.

Prizefighting is under the ban in most of the territory of the United States, not for prejudice against the actual test of skill and endurance, but for the general air of criminality with which the meetings are shrouded. Ordinarily the purpose is to swindle the public. Incidental to this is the collection of a lot of gamblers and hangers-on and ruffians, some of these classed as trainers, and a majority of them but one remove above vagrants. Most of the small fry inevitable as a phase of prizefighting belong on the border line between crime and respectability, with a tendency to stay on the somber side of the line. The lover of athletics, even though a devotee of boxing, has nothing to learn from the "fighting game," as commercial pugilism is styled. The training that it necessitates is, in the long run, ruinous. There is a theory that the fighter has to lead a clean life, but few fighters do this, and between their periods of training the rule is to indulge in excesses and live on a low moral plane. Of course with such a man as Johnson as champion, pugilism fell into greater disrepute than ever, but there is no probability that it ever is to regain any great measure of popularity. It was driven out because not deemed worthy to remain, and its return is not desired.—Pasadena News.

HEROES OF EVERY DAY

Chances are that Engineer Robert Long, who drove one of the locomotives lately in collision at Monrovia, would not care to be called a hero, this being a tendency of the heroic. It is impossible for him to escape the term, for he is a hero. That is, in a moment of sudden peril, he retained his presence of mind, and his first thought was as to the passengers behind him. Long's train, it appears, was drawing from the main track to a siding, to permit another train to pass. He saw the second train coming at high speed, and but for his quick act it must have dashed into the cars at such an angle as to have riven the sides of several of them. Instead of allowing this to happen, Long backed his train to the main line and let the locomotive take the brunt of the shock, head on. Naturally both engineers and firemen had jumped before the meeting, as there was nothing they could have accomplished by remaining. There are many brave men. There are others who in an emergency desire to do the right thing, but who lose their heads and cannot think. The hero is the man who thinks. There is great satisfaction in the fact that an engineer, put to the test, does exactly as he should. The average engineer is a high-class man, and the circumstance that he is an engineer attests his possession of courage, and yet the conduct of Mr. Long entitles him to especial distinction.

SHOULD UNITE TAXPAYING OFFICES

Now that the Benedict city and county consolidation bill has been withdrawn from the legislature, it will be decidedly interesting to watch the tactics of Los Angeles politicians in regard to the agitation to consolidate the city and county tax departments. The bluff has been made that such a combination should not be made in Los Angeles unless the city and consolidation measure carried. It did not carry. Now there is rumor that Los Angeles favors a union of the tax departments, regardless of the failure of the measure. For some time the county has been doing the assessing and tax collecting for South Pasadena on a percentage basis, says the South Pasadena Record. This has saved the city some money and has simplified tax-paying for our citizens. No one in this city would want to return to the old method. Los Angeles can make the same arrangement with the county and save many thousands of dollars. This can all be done in Los Angeles unless the city and county consolidation measure carried. It did not carry. Now there is rumor that Los Angeles favors a union of the tax departments, regardless of the failure of the measure.
